If you are missing one or more of these sacraments, please call the Parish Office at 705-472-1817 as soon as possible. For further information, contact Colleen Hutson at 705-840-3400.

Second Sunday of Lent

While Peter was below in the courtyard, one of the servant-girls of the high priest came by. When she saw Peter warming himself, she stared at him and said, "You also were with Jesus, the man from Nazareth." But he denied it, saying, "I do not know or understand what you are talking about." ... Then the cock crowed. Mark 14:66-68
 Someone you know could benefit from hearing about your relationship to Jesus. Next time you get the chance, tell him or her.

We welcome to our parish family Hannah Long who was recently baptized. We give thanks and praise to God for the new life in Christ bestowed upon this child.

WISDOM QUOTE:

"Let God's promises shine on your problems."
 Corrie ten Boom

Along for the ride

When you choose to follow God, amazing things can happen. The journey, though, takes faith. It requires listening and surrender; it means recognizing you're not in charge. You follow in the footsteps of a God who leads. Moments of transfiguration give guidance, while sacrifice challenges and fosters trust along the way. Life isn't a journey straight to the top. You can find yourself led to the highest of heights by the most unusual of paths. Being able to honestly declare, "Here I am, Lord," you give God the liberty to take you higher than you ever imagined possible.

"He was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white."

DEVELOPMENT & PEACE – Sowing seeds of justice for women and girls in Nigeria

Doubly poor are those women who endure situations of exclusion, mistreatment, and violence, since they are frequently less able to defend their rights. Even so, we constantly witness among them impressive examples of daily heroism is defending and protecting their vulnerable families.

- Pope Francis, The Joy of the Gospel, 212.

Supporting women and girls is a priority for Development and Peace. When 276 girls were kidnapped by Boko Haram from Chibok in Nigeria, our local Nigerian partner began working for their freedom, and has managed to smuggle three girls to safety. "The three girls, who were 17, 18 and 19 years old, still seemed to be under the effect of the swirl of emotions generated by the trials they experienced since their abduction," states Raphael Yimga Tatchi, Development and Peace program offices for Nigeria. "Their voices and lost eyes betray deep pain... glimmers of humanity shine through only when they courageously recount the details of their escape." The Share Lent collection for Development and Peace is Good Friday, April 3, 2015.
