The perfect trifacta

One simple analogy used to explain the Trinity is the example of H<sub>2</sub>O, which we know in its liquid form as water, its frozen form as ice, and its boiled form as steam—same substance, different manifestations. While the biblical authors didn't develop a formal theology of the Trinity, they came to know God manifested as the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. The fact that Matthew called for believers to be baptized “in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit” sealed the deal for later theologians. Pour yourself a glass of water and ponder the perfect logic of the Trinity.

“Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations.”

PROCEEDS FOR THE NIPISSING SERENITY HOSPICE

May 31, 2015 - Trinity Sunday

In the first reading, Moses tells the Israelites how special it was that God chose them to be his people. In the second reading, Paul teaches that those who are led by the Spirit are children of God and heirs to eternal life with Christ, if they are willing to suffer with him. In the Gospel, Jesus commissions the disciples to go forth and make disciples of all nations. On this solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, we affirm our faith that God exists as a Trinity – Father, Son and Holy Spirit – united together in of love. Through baptism and faith in Jesus, we have been given a share in the divine life of the Trinity. This being the case, let us seek to live in ever greater unity with God and with one another.
