50 YEARS OF CATHOLIC LEADERSHIP IN HEALING DISUNITY: The November 21, 1964 document of the Second Vatican Council said this in the DECREE ON ECUMENISM:

“All the faithful should remember that the more effort they make to live holier lives according to the Gospel, the better will they further Christian unity and put it into practice. For the closer their union with the Father, the Word, and the Spirit, the more deeply and easily will they be able to grow in mutual brotherly love.” Paragraph 7

“Come to me you who are heavy burdened and I will give you rest.” Mt 11.28 Is Jesus calling you to him as a priest? Do you want to help lift people's burdens? Contact Fr. “Love does not claim possession, but gives freedom.” Rabindranath Tagore

We pray for those who have died

They leave us, but they never really leave us. We remember “those who have gone before us” whenever we touch places, objects, or occasions that reverberate with their life. In the 11th century, Abbot Odilo of Cluny established November 2 as the day his monks would pray for the dead, in part because his century saw so many dying in famines. The whole church quickly adopted All Souls' Day. Prayer for the dead affirms our faith in the Resurrection, and in God's desire to heal us even on the far side of history.

“But the souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and no torment will ever touch them.”

In Loving Remembrance

MEMORIAL BOOK

A Memorial Book has been placed in the sanctuary near the altar. In this book, all parishioners are invited to inscribe the names of their family, relatives and friends who have died and who they wish to have remembered in the prayers that will be said for them during the month of November.
