Good news and great joy to all the world; today is born our Saviour, Christ the Lord

Dear friends, like the shepherds in the fields, we come with joyful hearts to celebrate the birth of our Saviour. Our hearts rejoice on this day as we remember the miraculous events that led to this great celebration.

Mary may have preferred to stay at home as her time drew near, yet she travelled with Joseph to Bethlehem; when they arrived, there was no room for them, yet she welcomed her son, loved him and cared for him; shepherds, perhaps the most unexpected of visitors, heard the news announced to them by angels and came to see it for themselves.

Each of these figures can help us to celebrate the gift of Christmas: Let us ask Mary to teach us how to be attentive in prayer and to have the courage to say yes to whatever the Lord asks of us. Let us ask Joseph to teach us how to watch over and protect our own families, and to be courageous witnesses of faith to all those we meet.

May the shepherds who received the good tidings proclaimed to them by the angels inspire us to recognize the Lord's gifts entrusted to us: faith, joy, peace, hope and love.

Our world needs these gifts so very desperately. Others who share our homes, our workplaces, those we meet casually and for many other reasons also need us to be living witnesses of these virtues.

Whether our celebrations be elaborate or simple, surrounded by crowds or occasions for solitude and contemplation, may they truly be opportunities for us to celebrate our faith, to celebrate the birthday of Christ and to share the joy that is found in our hearts with all those who are in need of these profound gifts.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

Joyeux Noël, Bonne, heureuse et sainte année!

Buon Natale e buon cippo d'anno!

Feliz navidad y próspero año nuevo!

Wesołych Świąt i Szczęśliwego Nowego Roku!

Vrolijk kerstfeest en een gelukkig nieuwjaar!

Merry Christmas and a very Happy New Year to All.

Dear Friends in Jesus Christ,

I would like to take this opportunity to offer you all a Blessed and Merry Christmas. May this Christmas be for you a day of divine inspiration that will grow within your heart throughout the New Year. The gift that God makes of his Son to the world is one we are called to receive and to contemplate in such a way that it transforms us from the inside.

Soon I will have completed my first year with you as Bishop of Sault Ste. Marie. Thank you for the gift that you are as you reveal the presence of God as individuals, as families and as parish communities.

Let us look forward to the future with hope well rooted in Jesus Christ. I wish you and your families joy and lasting peace.

Merry Christmas and a Blessed, Happy New Year!

J. Marcel Gagnon

Bishop of Sault Ste. Marie

December 25, 2016 The Nativity of the Lord

Isaiah speaks to us today of the beauty of the one who brings us glad tidings: Jesus coming to tell of God's love. Hebrews goes further, describing Jesus as the one who fully reveals the depths of God's love for humanity. Finally, the Gospel reminds us that Jesus is the very Word of God, the one from the beginning – God born into human history. God has always shown his love for us in numerous ways: through the beauty of creation and the love of our families and friends. Today, he shows that love in a very special way: in the birth of his beloved Son into our world – God's gift to all of us!
