Prayer for Families

Lover of the human family, teach us to see every one of your children as your beloved, and ours. Expand our hearts to love all your people as our own. Break down the walls we put up, and erase the lines we draw between "them" and "us". May our lives be lived in accordance with your will, that we might be blessed to be a part of your family, on earth and in heaven. Amen.

Our Parish Picnic last Sunday, June 3rd, was a huge success! We would like to thank all those who participated in our annual picnic. A special thanks to those who worked in the kitchen, donated, made salads, barbequed, and provided entertainment. All who volunteered were greatly appreciated. Thanks also to those who donated baked goods to the dessert auction which raised $201.60 for our Parish Food Cupboard. And to all the parishioners who came out and joined in the picnic fun – thanks for participating and adding to the Spirit of St. Peter's. A great time was had by all!

Embracing Stewardship

“Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother.” Mark 3:35

One of the early Christian communities' major struggles was determining who was in and who was out. Things haven't changed very much! We are still challenged to open our doors, broaden our tent, and recognize our brothers and sisters.

Why we hide

A psychologist explained something fascinating about shame: No one can put it inside us without our consent. Shame doesn't enter from the outside but responds from the inside. Those seeking to embarrass us are frustrated if we refuse their attempt to impart shame with the slap of a hand or a word. If we accept shame, it's because deep down we're already carrying it. So Adam, guilty of disloyalty to God, is shamed by his newfound nakedness. Yet Jesus, insulted, beaten, stripped, and humiliated, remains clothed in honor at the cross. Got shame? We've got a sacrament for that.

“I heard you in the garden, but I was afraid, because I was naked, so I hid myself.”

VOLUNTEER NEEDED

We are looking for a volunteer to look after the Worship Environment flowers and decorations as our current volunteer will be moving away. If you would like to share your talents, please contact the Parish Office.

Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In Genesis, sin enters the world as Adam and Eve yield to the serpent's temptation. Paul's Letter to the Corinthians urges believers not to be discouraged: our earthly dwelling fades, but life in the Lord is eternal. Mark's Gospel shows Jesus being described by the scribes as "possessed." Jesus responds with a promise that doing the will of God makes us his brothers and sisters. From the beginning, God has promised his people redemption. His love is stronger than sin and prevails over evil. Jesus comes to us to embody that love and set an example for us to follow. In doing God's will, he shows us the way to the Father and calls us to do the same on our journey to eternal life.
