Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Whoever does not carry their cross and follow me cannot be my disciple. Luke 14:27

In today's Gospel Jesus insists on the conditions for being His disciples: preferring nothing to the love of Christ, carrying one's cross and following Him.

"Following Jesus does not mean taking part in a triumphal procession! It means sharing His merciful love, entering His great work of mercy for each and every man/woman and for all. The work of Jesus is, precisely, a work of mercy, a work of forgiveness and of love! Jesus is so full of mercy!

And this universal pardon, this mercy, passes through the Cross. Jesus, however, does not want to do this work alone: He wants to involve us, too, in the mission that the Father entrusted to Him.

A disciple of Jesus -renounces all his/her possessions. In Jesus he/she has found the greatest good in which every other good receives its full value and meaning: family ties, other relationships, work, cultural and economic goods and so forth....

The Christian detaches him or herself from all things and rediscovers all things in the logic of the Gospel, the logic of love and of service." Sept.8,2013

"Mary, Queen of Peace, pray for us!"

We pray with Pope Francis, "that work may be dignified everywhere and for everyone."
