Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

Then Jesus said about Zacchaeus, "Today salvation has come to this house...for the Son of Man came to seek out and to save the lost." Luke 19:9-10 "

"He didn't want to meet Him, but he was curious.

"When Jesus comes close, He looks up and sees him (cf. v. 5)". And this is important: the first glance is not from Zacchaeus, but from Jesus, who among the many faces that surrounded Him –the crowd– seeks precisely that one.

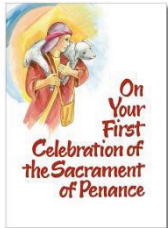

The merciful gaze of the Lord reaches us before we ourselves realize that we need it in order to be saved. And with this gaze of the Divine Master begins the miracle of the conversion of the sinner. Jesus' acceptance and attention lead to a clear change of mentality: in just a moment Zacchaeus realized how petty life is when it revolves around money. Zacchaeus discovers from Jesus that it is possible to love gratuitously.

He becomes generous. He rejoices in distributing. By encountering Love, by discovering that he is loved despite his sins, Zacchaeus becomes capable of loving others, making money a sign of solidarity and communion." Nov.3,'19

May the Virgin Mary obtain for us the grace always to feel Jesus' merciful gaze upon us, to go with mercy towards those who have erred, so that they too may welcome Jesus, Who, "came to seek and to save the lost" (v. 10).
