Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Give therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.” Matt 22:21

With this reply, Jesus places Himself above the controversy.

“But first and foremost – Jesus reminds us – you belong to God. This is the fundamental belonging. It is He who has given you all that you are and have. And therefore, day by day, we can and must live our life in recognition of this fundamental belonging and in heartfelt gratitude toward our Father, who creates each one of us individually, unrepeatable, but always according to the image of His beloved Son, Jesus. It is a wondrous mystery. Hence the mission of the Church and Christians: to speak of God and bear witness to Him to the men and women of our time. Every one of us, by Baptism, is called to be a living presence in society, inspiring it with the Gospel and with the lifeblood of the Holy Spirit. It is a question of committing oneself with humility, and at the same time with courage, making one's own contribution to building the civilisation of love, where justice and fraternity reign.” Oct. 22, 2017

May Mary Most Holy help us all to flee from hypocrisy and be honest and constructive citizens. And may she sustain us - disciples of Christ - in the mission to bear witness that God is the centre and the meaning of life.

World Mission Sunday

- October 22nd

World Mission Sunday –The one day in the year when the entire global Church comes together in support of mission! Coordinated by Missio, the Pope's charity for world mission, World Mission Sunday is an opportunity to support every mission diocese and faith community which are in need of our help.

The theme the Holy Father has chosen this year is: 'Hearts on Fire, Feet on the Move'. (cf. Lk 24:13-35) In his message for World Mission Sunday, Pope Francis says: 'Dear brothers and sisters, Just as the two disciples of Emmaus told the others what had taken place along the way (cf. Lk 24:35), so too our proclamation will be a joyful telling of Christ the Lord, His life, His passion, His death and resurrection, and the wonders that His love has accomplished in our lives.'
Please give to World Mission Sunday.

All Souls Day (Nov. 2nd)

During this day we contemplate all the souls we personally know that have died. We also contemplate the souls in purgatory with compassion and longing. We offer prayers for those in purgatory with the trust that our loved ones may be blessed with God's presence in Heaven. Please join us for Mass on Thursday November 2nd @ 9am in honour of all our deceased loved ones. Our Memorial Book will be on display during the month of November. Parishioners are welcome to add the names of family members or friends who are deceased. Let's pray for all of our loved ones this November!
