Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Come to Me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest." Matt 11:28

"The Lord does not reserve this phrase for certain friends of His, no; He addresses it to "all" those who are weary and overwhelmed by life. He knows that many things weary the heart: disappointments and wounds of the past, burdens to carry and wrongs to bear in the present, uncertainties and worries about the future. Today He says to each one of us: "Take courage; do not give in to life's burdens; do not close yourself off in the face of fears and sins. Come to me!"

He awaits us; He always awaits us. Not to magically resolve problems, but to strengthen us amid our problems. Jesus does not lift the burdens from our life, but the anguish from our heart; He does not take away our cross, but carries it with us. And with Him every burden becomes light (cf. v. 30), because He is the comfort we seek." Pope Francis July 9, 2017

"Let us learn to go to Jesus and, in the summer months, as we seek a little rest from what wearies the body, let us not forget to find true comfort in the Lord. May the Virgin Mary our Mother, who always takes care of us when we are weary and overwhelmed, help us and accompany us to Jesus."

Pope Francis – July Prayer

Intention

For a Eucharistic Life

We pray that Catholics may place the celebration of the Eucharist at the heart of their lives, transforming human relationships in a very deep way and opening them to the encounter with God and all their brothers and sisters.

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"The Spirit helps us in our weaknesses; for we do not know how to pray as we ought..." Romans 8:26. Jesus speaks to the crowds about the Kingdom of God. "How much patience God has! The Lord, who is Wisdom incarnate, tells us that the boundary line between good and evil passes through the heart of each person. We are all sinners. Jesus Christ, with His death on the Cross and His Resurrection, has freed us from the slavery of sin and given us the grace to journey in a new life; but along with Baptism He also gave us Confession, because we all need to be forgiven for our sins. Then Jesus teaches us a different way of looking at the field of the world, of observing reality. We are called to learn God's time – which is not our time – and also God's "gaze": what were weeds or seemed to be weeds can become a good product. It is the reality of conversion. It is the prospect of hope!" July 23, 2017 May the Virgin Mary help us to accept, in the reality that surrounds us, not only filth and evil, but also good and beauty"
