SUNDAY, OCTOBER 2, 2022

Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

"The apostles said to Jesus, "Increase our faith!" Luke 17:5

The word of God presents us today with two essential aspects of the Christian life: faith and service.

"Nothing is impossible to those who have faith, because they do not rely on their own strength, but on God, who can do everything.

Faith compared to the mustard seed is a faith that is not proud and self-confident; and doesn't pretend to be that of a great believer! It is a faith that in its humility feels a great need for God and in its smallness it abandons itself with total confidence to God. It is a faith that gives us the ability to look with hope at the ups and downs of life, which also helps us to accept defeats, and sufferings, in the knowledge that evil never has, nor ever will have, the last word.

How can we know if we really have faith, that is, if our faith, though tiny, is genuine, pure, and honest? Jesus explains this to us by pointing out that the measure of faith is service. This attitude towards God is also reflected in the way we behave in the community: it is reflected in the joy of being at the service of one another, already finding in this its own reward and not in the recognitions and advantages that can result from it." Oct 6, 2019

In the words of St. Theresa, "The fruit of faith is love. The fruit of love is service. The fruit of service is peace" (A Simple Path, Introduction). "
